ACCREDITATION
Internationally accredited

Become a certified Children's Etiquette Coach

Learn how to teach social skills, confidence, communication and modern manners to children aged 3 to 12. You'll leave with a complete, practical framework you can use immediately — and a triple-accredited, internationally recognised certification.

Who this is for

- You teach, coach or mentor children and want a professional, accredited method.
- You want structure, clear outcomes and practical classroom tools.
- You want to deliver engaging, child-centred sessions with confidence.
- You'd like to work in schools, clubs or private settings.

What you will gain

- A complete three-day training framework aligned to the Children's Etiquette programme.
- Confidence to teach posture, greetings, conversation and personal presentation.
- Practical dining etiquette methods — from place settings to a live-coached meal.
- An understanding of children's communication styles so that you can adapt your coaching to their personalities.
- Trainer and presentation skills for strong, confident delivery.
- Emotional intelligence tools for self-regulation, resilience and empathy.
- Ready-to-use lesson plans, role plays and printable resources.
- Clear assessment criteria for both children and your own trainer certification.

Three days of expert trainer development

DAY 1
